

What Are Your Questions About School?

Who invented school?
When will you use math in life?
Is school able to evolve?
What are animals?
How much does nature have to teach us?
What do kids need to learn in school?
How can you connect history and math?
Why do schools give scholarships?
When does a school's involvement in one's life become harmful than helpful?
Why in some schools do they have lunch money?
How do teachers instill confidence through creativity?
Why aren't more life lessons taught?
How many kinds of school are there?
When is lunch?
Why does school start from preschool to 12th grade?
If life is school...shouldn't we teach life?
How many people have gone to school?
What is the roof pitch of the school?
Why can't I go back to elementary school? (I miss recess)
I want to MOVE...why must I SIT?
Why does school start at kindergarten?
Why do schools end at different times?
Why can't we bring our chickens to school?
Why are students so mean to substitute teachers?
Why is school structured for specific ages?
Why is school a thing?
How long has school been around?
How can students learn if they don't feel deeply supported?
When was school created?
How can we make education cool again?
Why do teachers grade kids?
Why can't we wear funny hats?
If they truly meant education why does F stand for failure?
Where does our knowledge go when we get older?
Why is school so long?

What is the point of school?
How did people think of school?
Why do kids have to listen to teachers?
Why reward kids for bad behavior?
Why isn't there more recess?
Why did it get named school?
Why is school invented?
Why do we have 12 grades?
How do schools reflect our values?
Why is school a thing?
What are different ways of learning?
Is school food safe to eat?
Is it possible to learn without someone teaching?
Does $2 + 2$ always equal four?
When will teachers be respected?
What's worthy of learning? Math? Sports?
Who has to be inside a school to make a school?
Are opinions taught?
Can you go to school if there is no math?
When was math added to the curriculum?
Can video games teach?
Why do we go by age? Why not go by knowledge?
Why is school so fun?
Can you spend your entire life in school and still not learn as much as someone who didn't go to school?
How much can you learn from experience?
Why learn so much math?
Have humans scratched the surface of their learning potential?
Can you be successful without going to school?
Will there ever not be school?
Why do schools allow us to have basketball and all these activities but then make us do homework?
What will school be like when people our age will be teachers?
What subjects are necessary?
What is the point of having a school where no one is learning because technological errors are constantly slowing everything down?
If school didn't exist where would we all be right now?
What qualifies as learning?

Why did they decide school is needed?

Why don't we study how to pick up on social cues?

Why do schools make kids sit still?

Why do teachers rate how smart we are?

Why don't students rate teachers?

Why do we have to go to school?

Why do we have 1 teacher in elementary school but many in middle school?

Why is there always pee on the bathroom floor?

Why does bad behavior get rewarded and the good behavior kids get ignored?

How much do teachers get paid? Do they get paid the same amount at each school?

Why Es & S instead of As & Bs?

Why don't you get graded on more important stuff than math and reading?

Why can't 3rd & 4th graders play Teacher Monster to read?

Why do younger kids have more fun activities than older kids?

Why do teachers do reviews?

why do they have a lot of fun?

Why do teachers usually pay attention to people with bad behaviors more than others?

Why do kids not let other kids be included?

Why is school so different?

Why is school so fun?

Why do we have weekends?

Why is the school day so long?

Why is school suck?

Why is it boring?

Why are there lots of different grade?

Why is school so long?

Why can't we talk with our friends?

Why is school so boreng?

Why are there so many students and so little teachers?

Why don't we pay primary Ed teachers more?

Why haven't we adapted our education system to our modern/contemporary way(s) of living?

Why is the homemade pizza so bad?

Why is there no recess?

Why are there public and private schools?

Why do so many people hate school so much?

Why do people love school?

Why do they starve us?

Why do they put my seat facing away from the board and then yell at us?